The Secretariat of the CTAL issued a circular letter to members of the Central Committee on 18 March 1949, recommending that the Central Committee hold its 1949 meeting in Milan, Italy, from 12-14 July. In view of the fact that the Second World Labor Congress called by the World Federation of Trade Unions (WFTU) is to be held in Milan from 26 June-10 July 1949, CTAL leaders believe they will be able to demonstrate their support of WFTU in a meeting held directly afterward. They will also be able to study the problems of the Latin American labor movement with the assistance of the delegates to the World Labor Congress. The Secretariat requested that each member of the Central Committee cable his vote on the recommendation.
